

Question 3: What can you offer us that other candidates can't?

What You Did Well:

- Well-rounded qualities: You highlighted both soft skills (adaptability, ownership) and technical aptitude (process improvement, quick learning).
- Proactive mindset: Focus on improving processes shows initiative.
- Clarity & confidence: Your tone and structure sound confident and fluent.

Suggestions for Improvement:

- Add a brief example to make your strengths more concrete.
- Stronger closing line to reinforce your uniqueness.

Question 4: Tell me about a time you made a mistake and how you dealt with it.

What You Did Well:

- Clear structure using STAR format.
- Accountability: You owned the mistake without blaming others.
- Lesson learned: Showed growth and understanding.

Suggestions for Improvement:

- Add more context to show potential seriousness of the mistake.
- Highlight the long-term impact of your new habit.

Question 6: Why do you want this job?

What You Did Well:

- Clear alignment with role and company values.
- Highlighted a positive work culture and professional growth.

- Showed motivation and interest.

Suggestions for Improvement:

- Mention specific company/role details for personalization.
- Add how your background can add value to the organization.

Question 8: Can you describe your time management skills?

What You Did Well:

- Provided a structured and detailed real-world example.
- Demonstrated discipline, adaptability, and ownership.
- Outcome-focused conclusion showing your consistent performance.

Suggestions for Improvement:

- Summarize key strengths at the end for impact.
- Optionally mention use of any digital planning tools.

Question 9: How do you deal with feedback and criticism?

What You Did Well:

- Clearly expressed a growth mindset.
- Strong real-world example and reflection on feedback.
- Specific changes you made showed maturity.
- Strong conclusion highlighting your attitude.

Suggestions for Improvement:

- Slight polishing for smoother phrasing.
- Optionally tie it back to team collaboration or work output.